

David J. Bradley, Clerk

The proposed order must also include a provision under Rule 502(d) of the Federal Rules of Evidence stating that production in this litigation does not waive attorney-client privilege or work-product protection, a broader protection than the parties have provided. This must replace the material at Paragraph 14 of the current agreed protective order, which is unnecessarily limited to inadvertent disclosures of privileged information and to resolution under Rule 26(b)(5)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The parties may file a revised protective order no later than March 6, 2017.

SIGNED on February 27, 2017, at Houston, Texas.
